ACA / NASOP Professional Development Training Agenda

January 27, 2010

8:00 am Welcome

8:15 – 10:15 Evaluation of Inspectors

This Panel Discussion will focus on the process and tools used to evaluate inspectors from the perspective of certification agencies that primarily use contract inspectors and certification agencies that utilize staff inspectors. In addition we will identify how to develop effective means of obtaining feedback from inspectors.

Participants

Brett Bakker, New Mexico Organic Commodity Commission
Kristy Korb, Oregon Tilth Certified Organic
Leslie McKinnon, formerly Texas Department of Agriculture
Amy Stafford, International Certification Services
Robert Yang, Pennsylvania Certified Organic

10:15 – 10:30 Break

10:30 – 12:00 Oversight of NOP's Accreditation System: Anticipating Trickle-down Effects on ACAs

Last July, USDA Deputy Director, Kathleen Merrigan, announced her decision to have NOP apply for recognition by NIST's NVCASE program, which provides auditing and oversight of accreditation bodies. Merrigan stated that applying for and receiving NIST recognition will "support the NOP's credentials as an accreditation program and satisfy the organic law's peer review requirements." This presentation will focus on likely implications of this decision on the ACAs:

- What is NIST recognition?
- What advantages might certifiers and other organic stakeholders anticipate as a result of NIST oversight of the NOP's accreditation program?
- What changes might be present challenges for certifiers? ;
- How can certifiers weather – and even benefit from – a NIST Witness Audit?
- How does NIST recognition relate to the NOP's requirements for establishing a Peer Review Panel?

Presenter: Lynn Coody, Organic Agsystems Consulting

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch (on your own)

1:30 – 2:30 International Issues

An update regarding trade issues, including accreditation requirements, with Korea and Taiwan.
