Response to "Open Letter to the Organic Food Community"

In June, several ACA members drafted an "Open Letter to the Organic Food Community" regarding the media coverage of the NOP Materials List additions.

The letter was circulated on our discussion group and received many additional comments. The final version of the letter was sent to press organizations, magazines, certifying organizations who are not currently members of ACA, and other organic community associations.

The ACA office received many positive comments on our letter. OTA created a new website page Organic News &

Comments from Other Sources, which contains a link to our letter, along with an article written by Sam Fromartz, How the Media Missed the Story.

Several commenters indicated that the information was very clear and well done. The office was asked to provide a shortened version to be used in the "Letters to the Editor" column of two national magazines. The full version of our letter is posted on the ACA website.

Thanks to all our members who contributed to this letter.

The comments received were compiled into a draft document and the document is currently being re-circulated to members for additional comments. Keep in my that your participation is needed on this project. The outcome of work on the Grower Group Certification issue will be to submit our comments to the NOSB.

Future Issue Topics: Next up on our agenda will be to work on developing a process and the criteria to assess commercial availability. This could apply to both seeds and ingredients.

Resource Info Requested: If your organization has a commercial availability procedure, or forms, please consider forwarding the informa-

ACA Board Positions Available

ACA will be putting forth Board Member candidates for election / re-election at our annual meeting in January 2008, with the terms beginning in April 2008.

Currently we have 7 board members, however, our ACA bylaws stipulate that the Board of Directors may consist of between 5 and 9 members.

We would like to encourage members who are willing to assist with the work of ACA to submit their names for the open positions on the Board of Directors. Board members are asked to participate in our monthly conference calls.
